From:	john@gameaholics.com
To:	"JFinkeldey@aol.com"
Bcc:	"stevegamer@rcn.com"; "GamerMontu@gmail.com"; "vze4cswc@verizon.net"; "aran@pixiesoft.com"; "Marc.Houde@asg.com"; "sharee@gameaholics.com"; "bhamel@cox.net"; "traingamertom@gmail.com"; "hochboim@pixiesoft.com"; "sneacta@yahoo.com"; "aurora@gameaholics.com"; "keithl4170@comcast.net"
Subject:	Adel Verpflichtet/Hoity Toity PBEM Tournament Update
Date:	Sunday, February 08, 2009 4:07:00 PM

Greetings!

A lot of games just finished this past week -- so there's a lot of updates to the scoring. Check them out at http://www.gameaholics.com/adv_tournament.htm!

Interestingly, there are still four games (half) to go in Rounds Two, Three, and Four. Given the holidays at the start of Rounds Two and Three, I won't penalize those games for going over the deadline. However, if you're still in a Round Two game, it's time to pick up the pace. Please make certain you move at least once per day. Thank you!

I'm finishing an unusual game (my Round Two game, as a matter of fact). No one has had a check since about the half-way mark! That sure makes for a lot of people at the Castle... Another unusual game (Game 6 of Round 4) saw four of the five players finish with a set of 9 cards -- the age of the cards sure mattered a lot. Interestingly, Anthony Daw finished second in that one despite being the only player without 9 cards (he had 5). Another interesting game (Game 2 of Round 4) saw four players finish over the line (my wife, Sharee, was the lone player to come up short when her set expired -- that is, was totally ripped off -- just as she approached the finish).

I hope you're all having as much fun in your games as I'm having in mine. I even get an occasional Amun Re move in...

John