Subject: Hoity Toity/Adel Verpflichtet PBEM -- Weekly Updates Begin

Greetings Auctioneers, Exhibitioners, Detectives, and Bandits:

Five games have finished, so I will begin my weekly updates to the tournament website:
http://www.gameaholics.com/adv_tournament.htm. That way you can track how each player is doing.

Not surprisingly, the sprinters look good in the early finishes (since those games tend to be shorter). I suspect the large set collectors are about to make themselves felt! Interestingly, seven players have already finished TWO games – they earn out Speedy Gonzalez award for ultra-fast play.

I'm pleased to see all the games moving at a good rate. That will get more challenging as the holidays approach, but I hope you'll each log into SpielByWeb every day possible. I hope you're all having a load of fun!
